AYER'S PILLS,

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases—Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back and Limbs. Female complaints, &c., &c. Indeed very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the hearse all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing anything hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the eminent gentlemen to whom we are allowed to refer for these facts, are

PROF. AUGUSTUS NOTT, the distinguished Surgeon of New York City.

DOCT. A. A. HAYES, Practical Chemist of the Port of Boston, and Geologist for the State of Massachusetts.

ISAAC L. MOORE, M. D., an eminent Surgeon and Physician of the City of Lowell, who has long used them in his extensive practice.

H. C. SOUTHWICK, Esq., one of the first merchants in New York City.

Q. A. DAVIS, M. D., Supt and Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital, at Chelsea, Mass.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the certificates of these eminent public men is shown in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, as exacted by chemical process, in a state of purity, and combined, together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities, by this, each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effect should prove be they have proved more purely remedial, and their Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease, than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate Formula by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If however there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject, freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are willing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting wherever they exist such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions, see the wrapper on the Box.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

John Bunyan's Immortal Allegory

PROBABLY no book, save the Bible, has been so extensively read as Bunyan's inimitable allegory.

The Pilgrim's Progress.

Has been translated into nearly all the different languages of Christendom, and been perused with delight and holy fervor by all nations. Art has lent her attractions in nearly all the forms of Illustration, from the rough Wood Cut to the exquisite Steel Engraving. But to the middle of the nineteenth century, and to an American clergyman, are we indebted for the only pictorial conception of this immortal work.

The novel and sublime idea of embodying the entire story, and transferring the same to a single picture, showing the wanderings of Christian from the "City of Destruction" to the Celestial City, presenting at one view to the eye the varied scenes through which he passed originated with Rev. DANIEL WISE of Massachusetts. His truly original and beautiful conception was reduced to a most elegant design by HAMMATT BILLINGS, and from this design JOSEPH ANDREWS, the distinguished historical engraver, has produced, after four years of labor, a picture which will take rank among the most superb and elaborate productions of human genius, taste and skill.

The picture is now ready and will be offered at the Bookstore of the Publishers, and by Agents duly appointed by the Publishers.

The Poor Voter on Election Day.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

The proudest now is but my peer,
The highest not more high;
To-day, of all the weary year,
A king of men am I.
To-day, alike are great and small,
The nameless and the known;
My palace is the people's hall,
The ballot-box my throne.

Who serves to-day upon the list
Beside the served shall stand,
Alike the brown and wrinkled fist,
The gloved and dainty hand!
The rich is here with the poor,
The weak is strong to-day;
And sleekest broadcloth counts no more
Than homespun frock of gray.

To-day let pomp and vain pretence
My stubborn right abide;
I set a plain man's common sense
Against the pedant's pride.
To-day shall simple manhood try
The strength of gold and land;
The wide world has not wealth to buy
The power in my right hand!

While there's a grief to seek redress,
Or balance to adjust,
Where weighs our living manhood less
Than Mammon's vilest dust,—
While there's a right to need my vote,
A wrong to sweep away,
Up! clouted knee and ragged coat!
A man's a man to-day!

The Working Classes in England and the United States—Compared.

The following extract from an address recently made by Mr. Cobden, M. P., before the Mechanic's Institution at Barnsley will be read with interest. (He is alluding particularly to the strike movement in England.)

* * * I remember the time when the cessation of labor by 25,000 persons would have led to riot and disturbance, and the calling out of the military. This is not to be seen now, (Hear, hear.) We see passive resistance and firmness to an extent which, if they had policy and propriety at their back, would be highly desirable and most commendable. (Hear, hear.) But, gentlemen, we shall probably live to see the time when another step will be taken onward. You will live to see the time when men will settle these matters not by resorting to blind passion, by vituperation, and counteravitation—when the question of wages will be left to the master and man to arrange according to their own interest—when the whole question of wages and the rate of wages will be settled just as quietly as you now see the price of any article fixed in the public market. (Hear, hear.) They do not find that people who went to market with cattle, potatoes, or anything else, struck against the buyers of those cattle or potatoes. They did not find that the seller of the cattle struck against the seller of the potatoes, and that the buyers and the eaters of the potatoes stood quietly by and starve while the potatoes rotted. They did not find men doing such things; but they found that it was by the higgling of the market that they tranquilly decided the price; they thus fixed the price of the day, and the whole thing was quietly settle without that irritation and waste of property, without that misery and suffering, which I consider most painful, and, as a sign of the intelligence of the day, the most discreditable—that struggle between master and work people which is passing in our time.—(Applause.)—I am not saying one word of the merits or either side upon this question. Both parties think themselves right, and both are, no doubt, right in attempting to get the best price they can, the one for his labor, and the other for his capital; but if there were more intelligence upon this question—if the laws were better understood which decide finally and inexorably the relative value of labor as well as everything else, these matters would be settled without that hideous amount of suffering which I deplore to see accompanying these strikes and troubles in the manufacturing districts.—(Applause.)—And when I say, gentlemen, that intelligence will put an end to these things, I am only saying that will be done here which has already been done in America.—(Hear, hear.)—You cannot point to any state in America, where people have more education than they have here, of the total cessation from labor of a whole community, of an entire town given over as a prey to destitution. (Hear, hear.) You cannot point out such an instance in America; nor her will you see it in England when that intelligence and reading which these institutions are intended to promote shall be spread throughout our country. (Loud applause.) Well, gentlemen, this brings me back again to the point that we want schools—schools to teach people these principles—schools to teach people from their youth to take a calm and reasoning view of the things which affected their interest, and so to educate them that they shall not allow others to lead them away by appeals to their passions. (Applause.) We shall never be safe as a manufacturing and mining community until a school is invariably grown up along with every manufactory and at the mouth of every pit and mine in the kingdom. (Loud applause.) Now, gentlemen, I must here again allude to America.

When I came through Manchester the other day, I found many of the influential manufacturing capitalists talking very gravely upon a report which had reached them from a gentleman who was selected by the government to go out to America to make a report upon the great exhibition in New York. That gentleman was one of the most eminent of the mechanicians and machine makers of Manchester, employing a very large number of workpeople, renowned for the quality of his productions, and known in the scientific world, and whose scientific attainments were appreciated from the Astronomer Royal downwards. He has been over to New York to report upon the progress of mechanics and mechanical arts in the United States. Well, he has returned. No report from him to the Government has as yet been published, and what he has to say specifically upon the subject, will not be known until that report has been so made and published to the country. But it has oozed out in Manchester among his neighbors that he has found in America a degree of intelligence among the manufacturing operatives, and a state of things in the mechanical arts which have convinced him that, if we are to hold our own—if we are not to fall back in the rear in the race of nations—we must educate our people so as to put them on a level with the more educated artisans of the United States. (Applause.) We shall have an opportunity of judging of this matter when that report is issued; but sufficient has already oozed out among his neighbors to excite a great interest, and, I may say, some alarm. Well, I am delighted to find an intelligent man selected for this duty, for all the world will approve of the selection made, because the gentleman alluded to was fully competent to the task; and he has come back to tell us it is necessary to educate the people. (Hear, hear.) I went to that country 20 years ago, and I published a record of my opinions. That was written in 1835, and I stated that England would be brought to the consciousness that it was to that country she would have to look with apprehension as to manufacturing rivalry; and now I am delighted that it should turn out as I have stated, that it has come from a quarter—from a person so well qualified to procure correct information that no one will question the truth of his report when it comes out. I say I am delighted, because I want England to know her danger, if there is one.—(Hear, hear.)—Napoleon used to say to those in communication with him:—"If you have any bad news to tell me, awake me at any hour of the night, for good news will keep, but bad news I cannot know too soon."—(Hear, hear.)—I say, then, I am delighted with this, for let but Englishmen know of a danger to face, and of a difficulty to surmount, and there is nothing within the compass of human capacity which they will not accomplish; but the great misfortune is, that Englishmen are too much given up to and incrusted with their insular pride and prejudice,—a sort of Chinese notion of superiority,—that they will not awaken up and use their eyes as to what is going on in other countries until it is too late. (Hear, hear.) I am glad, therefore, that this question is to be brought forward; but why should America be better educated than England? Do you think that a new country which has the wilderness to cultivate, primeval forests to level, roads to make, and every bridge and church to erect,—do you think that such a country is in a position to rival an old country, if that country will only do its duty to its people? (Hear, hear.) No, an old country has greater advantages and facilities at command than a new one; and if you find a new country beating an old one in this matter, depend upon it, it is because of some fault in the old one. (Hear, hear.)

☞ The report so current a few days since, that a treaty had been concluded securing to the United States the navigation of the Amazon has since been denied. The great and rich regions watered by this noble river have been explored, and is represented as rich in mineral resources, while the genial climate and fertile soil, are of far greater importance to the human race than their more magnificent stores of precious minerals and metals. The choicest fruits grow in abundance and perfection—some surpassing even the famous bread-fruit of New Holland, especially that called by the natives sham-ma, which grows in the shape of a nut, somewhat larger than a cocoa nut, is nearly cleft in the middle, and its interior is similar in appearance, color and flavor to rich, new milk, floating in a pulpy substance of a darker shade, resembling bread; and, as if Nature were willing to perform the office of restaurateur, the outside shell forms a perfect, clean and polished bowl to eat from. Pity the beef-does not furnish a silver spoon.

The plains of that country are graced by immense herds of the wild ox, whose skin is already a staple in commerce; its hills, by the Alpaca sheep, so valued for its wool that in countries where it is cultivated, perpetual imprisonment is the penalty for the attempt to export one, and having one within ten leagues of the coast is punished by a heavy fine.

Medicinal herbs grow in the most common profusion. Sarsaparilla, of which there are two kinds, exists wild in field and forest in quantities which would surprise Dr. Townsend himself. The story goes that a Yankee found himself at Lima with a few bales of cotton cloth valued at about $300. He felt a Yankee's curiosity to see what was behind the Andes, so he had his cotton cloth packed across the mountains, where, by dint of sharp trading with the natives, he turned it into tons enough of sarsaparilla to bring him, in Liverpool, the very convenient sum of sixty thousand dollars. The aloe flourishes throughout the whole country. Its climate is healthy to the invalid; its groves are fragrant with delicious perfumes; its forests tower with the richest woods, useful in dye or on which the artizan delights to bestow his labor and exhaust his skill.

☞ The Saco Union, in calling the attention of its readers to the business wants of that office, remarks that the necessary expenses of the office have been greatly increased the past year. The Belfast Journal, a few weeks since, made a similar remark, and every publisher of a newspaper in Maine knows that this is a fact. Competition and the hope of extending the circulation of their papers have induced the publishers to fix the price of their papers at the lowest rates possible to publish them, and considering the many risks they run and the scattered condition of their claims, these rates have been fixed too low, and the printing business is the poorest regular business in the State. An increase on the cost of paper, of labor, of rents, and of living, makes the business pinch. Few, if any, dare raise the price of their paper or of their work, but some printers are foolish enough in the push to reduce still lower the price of their work where they can command ready cash, and thus keep themselves in hot water, involved in debt, and in a tight place. The whole system is wrong. It is a wrong and a mistake for a local paper, depending upon local patronage and business to expect to gain a general circulation through the country by a low price. The friends of a village paper if the paper is needed, are always willing to pay for it, and to them the difference of a dollar a year is nothing, whereas, to the publisher it is every thing. Then again, publishers are too fearful in making a personal call upon their subscribers for payment, when the bill is small, fearing that the subscriber will withdraw his name. This is nonsense, if not worse. In many years' experience we never had a subscription stop when the place was not supplied by another, and we know that the rule is that a man who means to pay would prefer to do so annually than to have the bill accumulate to a large amount.

The common sense of the whole thing is this, that the publishers of newspapers, if they are intelligent and honest and prudent men, should establish such prices to their paper, and their labor, as will secure them a living, and they should collect as rapidly as the demands of their business require. We do not see how they can resist the law of trade by keeping down their prices when the prices of everything else is increasing. Indeed it seems to us inevitable that the price of newspapers must rise, of all local papers at least, or printers become paupers.

☞ We give our readers this morning an admirable, brief, and comprehensive view of startling foreign news, posting them up on European affairs, showing the progress made in the war now declared on both sides by Turkey and Russia, and showing the several victories which the Turks have achieved over the Russians, and of the probable destination of a portion of the French army in aid of Turkey.—This news has been anxiously looked for since Tuesday, and it gives us great pleasure to be able to furnish it to our readers this morning, and which they will doubtless read with the deepest interest.

☞ A saw mill owned by William Jackson, was burned last Friday night in Brewer, on the Gardiner Meadow Stream. The mill was left at about four o'clock in the afternoon, and was discovered to be on fire at about eight. We did not learn the amount of the loss, but the property was insured for $600.

☞ The Hampden Lyceum has made arrangements for a course of lectures the present season. The first lecture will be delivered on this evening by Hon. Hannibal Hamlin. Prof. Shepard, Prof. Packard, Rev. Mr. Giles, Josiah Quincy, Jr., Dr. J. V. C. Smith, Hon. A. Burlingame, and other popular lecturers are engaged.

The enterprise of our neighbors at Hampden should be followed by other towns and villages in the State.

☞ We are indebted to Hon. Israel Washburn, Jr., for valuable public documents, for which we return thanks.

HALIFAX, TELEGRAPH OFFICE, November 24th, 1853.

The steamship Canada sailed from Liverpool, Saturday, the 12th instant, at 4 o'clock, P. M., and arrived at Halifax at 10 o'clock this forenoon. She brings one hundred through passengers.

The steamship Washington from Southampton, Wednesday, the 9th, left for New York with a full cargo and nearly two hundred passengers.

The steamship Atlantic arrived out at four o'clock, A. M., Wednesday, the 9th.

TURKISH WAR.

Lest the Washington has not arrived our correspondent repeats the following important information:

The British are threatened in India.

The overland mail is telegraphed, with news of vital importance, if true.

The Czar has formed an alliance with Dost Mahommed, to proclaim war against the British in India, if Great Britain persists in supporting Turkey. A large Russian force is to invade Bokhara.

It is said that the Persian army is collecting in the valley of Soultania to co-operate with Russia against Turkey.

If this startling news is confirmed, Parliament will assemble forthwith, to devise measures to avert the dangers that threaten India.

But, from other sources, we learn that Persia is not hostile to Turkey, so, perhaps, all is baseless.

RUSSIA DECLARES WAR.

The Czar issues the following arrogant manifesto:

THE EMPEROR OF RUSSIA'S MANIFESTO.

By the grace of God, we, Nicholas the First, Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russias, by our manifesto of the 4th of June of the present year, we informed our faithful and beloved subjects of the motives which made it incumbent on us to demand from the Ottoman Porte invariable guarantees in favor of the sacred rights of the Orthodox Church, while at the same time announced to them that all our efforts to bring to the Porte, by means of amicable persuasion, to sentiments of equity suit to the faithful observance of treaties, had remained fruitless, and that, consequently, we deemed it indispensable to order our troops to advance into the Principalities of the Danube, but in adopting that measure, we still entertained the hope that the Porte would confess its errors and would resolve to give satisfaction to our just reclamations.

Our expectations have been deceived. It is in vain, also that the great powers of Europe have endeavored by their exhortations to shake the blind obstinacy of the Ottoman government; it is by a declaration of war, by a proclamation replete with fatal accusation against Russia, that it replied to the pacific efforts of Europe, and to our forbearance finally enrolling in the ranks of its army the revolutionists of all countries, the Porte has commenced hostilities on the Danube.

Russia is provoked to the combat. No other means is left them than a recourse to arms to compel the Ottoman government to respect treaties, and to obtain from it the reparation of the offences by which it responded to our most moderate demands, and to our legitimate solicitude for the defence of the Orthodox faith in the East, which is also the religion of the Russian people. We are firmly convinced that our faithful subjects will join in the fervent prayers which we address to the Most High, that His hand may deign to bless our arms in the holy and just cause which has, at all times, found ardent defenders in our pious ancestors

Te o domine speravi, non confundar aeternum.

COMPLETE DEFEAT OF THE RUSSIAN TROOPS.

[Official Telegraphic Despatch.]

The Consul of France at Bucharest to M. de Bourqueney, November 6th:

On the 2d and third of November the Turks crossed the Danube from Futtuhas to Oltenitza, to the number of about 18,000. On the 4th Gen. Pallos attacked them with 9000 men, and after a brisk cannonade a combat with the bayonet took place between the two armies. The Turks maintained their positions at Oltenitza and have fortified them.

The combat lasted three hours. In it the Russians lost several officers and one hundred and thirty-six privates killed, and six superior officers and eighteen subalterns and four hundred and seventy-nine privates wounded.

The loss on the Turkish side is not known.

Four thousand Turks occupy Kalavache.—Two thousand have established themselves on an island in front of Georgivo, and twelve thousand are in Lesser Wallachia.

For full account of the same battle,

VIENNA,

Another engagement has taken place, and fourteen superior Russian officers have fallen. The Turks remained masters of the field, and the Russians were retreating on Buchurest.

Previous to the battle the Turks had constructed a bridge and tete de pont at Kalafat, which served as the basis of their operations.

It appears that Omar crossed at three points, with 15,000 at Oltenetze, 4000 at Kalavache, and 2000 at Georgevo.

Skirmishes continually occurred at outposts. Before the crossing of the Danube, a body of Cossacks came to the bank of the river and made signs of insult to the Egyptians, who rushed to the boats and rowed across the river in the face of the Cossacks fire and having punished them well and chased them some distance inland they returned in triumph to the camp.

There are rumors of several other movements of the Turks at different points along the Danube, and of the destruction of a Russian steamer at Horsova. But the reports though probable, do not rest on sufficient authority to be stated as facts.

FIRST BATTLE IN ASIA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31.

Lebanon is disturbed. Selim Pashaw has crossed the Russian frontier in Asia, and a battle has taken place near Battoum, 5,000 men were engaged and both armies fell back as night came on

THE SECOND BATTLE IN ASIA AND THE RUSSIANS DEFEATED.

October 20.

Mustar Bey, officer of Selim Pashaw's staff, with a small force was suddenly attacked by a body of Russian Cavalry. He fell back, fighting towards the main body of the Turkish army, and the battle soon became general. 15,000 Russians were engaged. After hard fighting the Russians were defeated and fled pursued by the Turks, who planted the Sultan's standard and made their quarters at the Russian position Orelle, eight hours distance from Cioroekdere, where the battle began. The Russian force was defeated and beaten back to Bucharest, where was the main body of the Russians under Gen. Dannenberg and from thirty to forty thousand strong. If this be true, the news is summed up thus triumphantly for the Turks. The Turks have beaten the Russians in Asia. The Turkish left wing in Europe has beaten the Russian right, comprising their principal force, while the Turkish centre has whipped 9000 Russians.

The policy of the Russians is supposed to be to draw the Turks from their present advantageous positions and with the aid of reinforcements now on the way, to bring them to a battle that shall decide the campaign.

The intention of Omar is to keep his promise and drive the Russians from the Principalities, and make his head quarters at Bucharest.

Diplomacy lags uselessly on the rear of fighting, and even yet hopes to adjust matters, but not until after a decisive battle shall have been fought, the condition being that to serve the Czar's amour propre, negotiations shall not be recommenced after an engagement in which the Russians are worsted

MORE NEWS FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

The typhus fever is raging in the Russian ranks, and has reduced the number of fighting men to eighty-five thousand, and it will be six weeks before reinforcements can arrive from Bessarabia.

The Czar has requested the Montenegrians to operate against the Turks.

The Porte has decided that foreign Refugees shall not be employed in Europe, but they may serve in Asia.

Abbi Pashaw is to be removed from the Asiatic command.

Constantinople is quiet.

BRITAIN.

The British fleet at Spithead is ordered to be ready for sea on the 11th, but its destination is not stated.

The Lord Mayor's Banquet was attended by all the Cabinet Ministers, also Mr. Buchanan. The best speech was merely complimentary to a successful issue.

The Earl of Aberdeen referred to his known policy of peace, but said that while he still followed a peace policy it was not impossible to engage in war to prevent greater evils. The Full Cabinet Council was held on the receipt of Indian news. Deliberations did not transpire.

The weather in England was very favorable for wheat sowing.

FRANCE.

The trial of the conspirators of the Opera Comique was proceeding. It seems from evidence to have been really a plot to assassinate the Emperor.

The metal founders of France are strongly urging on government an immediate reduction of the duty on metals. This movement has caused speculation in the British iron market.

BELGIUM.

A legislative session commenced at Brussels the 8th. The King's speech was congratulatory, and talked of various reforms.

AUSTRIA.

Austria is keeping strict watch on the movements of Servia, and is concentrating a force on that frontier but otherwise remains neutral. The Servian government, meantime, has ordered its populations to arms, and has informed the Porte that neither Austria nor Russia will be permitted to occupy Servia.

Reschid Pashaw has informed Austria that Turkey will expect the Austrian government to prohibit the Russians from supplying the Montenegrins with arms through the port of Cattaro. It was said that Austria offers to remain entirely neutral if the Porte will refrain from employing Austrian refugees in the army. As Hungarians hold high command in the Turkish army, the Porte will, likely, refuse to accede to these terms, although not employing them in Europe.

☞ The Lincoln Democrat is trying to make the Morrillmen in this State bid in the election of Mr. Pilsbury Governor, by talking about political consistency. That is a subject which at this time, in administration prints should, be touched rarely and tenderly. The checks and balances, the barterings and pay of the various sections of the loco party are now the great objects of pursuit, and in all this there are and can be no straight lines, and consistency is voted a decided bore. If the Democrat would not lose caste, it must run the lines, although crooked, and submit to the required perturbations of the democratic compass.

☞ Launched, the sixteenth inst, at Frankfort, from the yard of William B. Reed, a superior copper-fastened brig of 206 tons. She is to be named the Isabella Jewett.

Mexican News.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.

The New Orleans mail of Wednesday last is at hand.

The papers contain full details of the latest Mexican news.

The Diario officially refers to the troubles at Acapulco with the schooner L. B. Allen, and says that the schooner was seized for an infraction of the laws; but Mr. Gadsden, the U. S. Minister, having solicited the President to interpose his authority, and permit the vessel to continue her voyage to Acapulco, his excellency was pleased to consent thereto, as a proof of his desire to maintain and render yet closer the good relations which exist between the two countries.

The Diario also contradicts the report that the U. S. ship St. Lawrence had arrived at Acapulco, and threatened a bombardment of the town.

A decree had been issued providing that ships entering Mexican ports only to repair damages sustained, or for provisions or water, shall not be considered liable to the payment of any tonnage; and vessels loaded only with coal for the steamship depot at Acapulco, shall pay only forty cents per ton on their burden.

The U. S. Economist states that the United States now consumes as much cotton, in 1853, as England did in 1833. The United States are now where England was twenty years ago.

Green Mountain Vegetable CEMENT.

BROKEN China Glass Earthen Ware, and Fancy Articles of every description repaired and mended making them as strong as before or even without injuring the appearance

This Cement which has been proved to be of great strength will be found particularly useful in every family, the simple manner of its application is above a recommendation The adhesive property which it contains do so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it The variety of purposes for which it may be used are so numerous that it would be difficult to recite them Its success in mending Glass Chinà &c is extraordinary, no ordinary degree of heat affecting it, and as the joints are scarcely perceptible articles of this kind may be made useful for years which otherwise would have been cast away

PROFESSOR ALEX C BARRY'S

TRICOPHEROUS,

or Medicated Compound,

FOR beautifying improving, and preserving the Hair, curing cuts bruises burns stings rheumatism and all irritations of the skin A preparation the sale of which amounts to one million bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement, but as the thousands who purchase, use and approve of it have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives here with a plain statement of facts derived from his books and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 917 000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of and the cash product of this immense sale was near $100 000

This plain unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than any thing its inventor could say If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy for cuts, bruises burns, skin diseases &c —it would not, of course, be so universally in demand The wealthy portion of the public would buy it at any price but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits

Sold in large bottles [price 25 cents a whole sale and retail at the manufactory and depot 137 Broadway, New York and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

MR KENNEDY of Roxbury has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple — He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face
Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin
Two or three bottles warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum
Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact If you have a humor it has to start There are no ifs nor ands, hums nor ha's about it suiting some cases, but not yours I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston I know the effects of it in every case I has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty I have seen poor puny wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle

To those who are subject to a sick headache, one bottle will always cure it It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years and have been regulated by it Where the body is sound it works quite easy but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to

TESTIMONIALS

The following certificate from Dr John C Warren of Boston, was given 17 years since, but will last forever

Boston, Jan 4 1836

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia have suffered much from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have taken pains to inform myself of the competency of Mr J F Foster to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Beath — After some months of observation of his work I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments, and ingenious in accommodating to the variety of cases which occur I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to these important articles

JOHN C WARREN M D

The undersigned take great pleasure in recommending to the favorable consideration of those who are unhappily afflicted with Hernia Mr James Frederick Foster as a skilful and competent person in the manufacture and fitting of Trusses We have employed him (some of us over twenty years) and therefore speak from personal knowledge of his abilities His early advantages his long experience in the business and the large number of individuals whom he has relieved in a variety of cases render him, in our opinion [illegible] superior to any [illegible] of the article His father Dea Gideon Foster of Charlestown was master of the Poor House in that town for upwards of twenty four years, during which period Mr Foster availed himself of the opportunity, and made application of his Trusses to a great variety of cases with great success, some of which were of a very complicated and distressing character

It is well known to all who have occasion to wear a Truss that its great excellence consists in its adaptation to the body at the same time relieving the patient Any ordinary mechanic may make a Truss but no one but a skilful practitioner can apply it in such a manner as effectually and efficiently radically cure the complaint

Our experience has convinced us that Mr Foster has thoroughly attained this knowledge The certificates of Dr J C Warren and other eminent surgeons, with whom he has [illegible], fully sustain the opinion we have so expressed

Self Acquired Fame!

DR. JOHNSON'S

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine notwithstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper publicity, has yet acquired a higher and more extended popularity than any other similar compound in the world It is entirely of vegetable extract perfectly safe to be administered even to the most delicate child and alike astonishing and satisfactory in its effects upon man or beast To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, Give it a fair trial, and we promise you a radical cure of Coughs Colds Asthma Bronchitis Whooping Cough Influenza Spitting of Blood and all Lung Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, and Dysentery in all of which cases it should be used internally The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spinal Diseases Sprains Chapped Hand Bruises, Burns and all descriptions of wounds are magical Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach, Side or Bowels, Sore Throat Piles &c by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne cannot fail of certain and speedy cure The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations as it has done for forty years past We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial In its composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica — The inventor of this article was in the constant and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years

This is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough and bleeding at the lungs and receiving no benefit from medical aid in 1848 I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption My legs swelled so that I was unable to stand or help myself At that time your Liniment was providentially recommended to me and by the use of three or four bottles was entirely cured and have since been able to labor every day I have also for the last twenty years been subject to severe attacks of bloody dysentery, and never found any permanent relief until I took your Liniment, since which I have had no return of this complaint I can truly say I think your Anodyne Liniment was the means of saving my life JOHN P ATKINS
Brewer, Sept 29, 1852.

Dr Johnson Dear Sir—In consequence of having a fever sore on my leg, it became entirely stiff at the knee, and it was decided by the best surgeons that my leg must be amputated—but fortunately I heard of your Anodyne Liniment and by using three bottles, my leg was limbered and strengthened, and for a number of years I have been able to use it about as well as the other I consider myself indebted to the use of your Linement through the blessing of Providence for the use of my leg and would say to others who may need help in this way try it, and no doubt you will be cured
